PReparedness against CBRNE threats through cOmmon Approaches between security praCTItioners and the VulnerablE civil society
PROACTIVE Project overview

Grigore HAVARNEANU, PhD

UIC Security Division

Background

- Increase of CB attacks as well as attack preparation (linked to radicalization)

- SSH research approaches to CBRNe topic are scarce (past focus mainly on technological tools and procedures)

- Need to focus on the citizen (diverse and vulnerable groups) during the preparedness and response phases

- EU action plan on CBRN preparedness

- More and more interest from the railway side (e.g. UIC survey)
